On 6th may 1895, when he was examined for the first insurance he stated that his age then was 28 years. According to the date of birth entered in the personal he was 27 years 1 month & 16 days old actually on that date. This might probably be due to his having mentioned his age roughly without stating the exact age giving the months & days.

In the Service Regr the entry viz 1866 first made has
